

A large, light green arrow pointing downwards, positioned on the left side of the page.

Code of Conduct for Children and Young People:

As children and young people who are part of Queensland Police-Citizens Youth Welfare Association we agree that:

- We will respect other children, young people and adults
- We will cooperate and play by the rules
- We will listen and receive instructions
- We will control our temper
- We will have a say about what we are involved in
- We will speak up if we are worried or concerned about something
- We will not be a bully or accept any bullying that we see

Code of conduct for parents and carers

As a parent/carer of a child involved in the service provided by Queensland Police-Citizens Youth Welfare Association, I agree that:

- I will respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person, regardless of their abilities, gender, religion or cultural background.
- I will respect the decisions of employees/officials and teach children to do likewise
- I will focus on and encourage children's efforts and performance
- I will support all efforts to remove any form of abuse in this organisation and encourage a safe and supportive service environment
- I will remember that my child participates in activities for their own enjoyment, not mine
- I will raise any issues or concerns with staff
- I will not treat any child or young person in an unfair, unjust, or discriminatory manner
- I will not smoke on the organisation's premises
- I will not drink alcohol or use illicit substances while on the organisation's premises

Code of conduct for coaches (contracted and hall hire arrangements)

As a coach for PCYC, I will:

- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person, regardless of their abilities, gender, religion or cultural background
- Support all efforts to remove any form of abuse in this organisation and encourage a safe and supportive service environment
- Ensure that any physical contact with others is appropriate to the situation and necessary for the person's skill development
- Refrain from developing close personal relationships with children and young people outside of the coach/participant relationship
- Refrain from using abusive, derogatory or offensive language
- Impart knowledge and skills of the game in a respectful and encouraging manner Respect the decisions of the staff/officials and encourage participants to do the same Always consider the health, safety and welfare of the
- Not show favouritism towards talented individuals