4.0 Reporting

PCYC Queensland treats all feedback seriously and investigates and responds to all feedback and complaints received.

Complaints and feedback should be lodged in writing (where possible) to ensure the information is accurately received by PCYC Queensland. Reporting methods include:

Phone –	(07) 3909 9555
Email –	complaints@pcyc.org.au Online
Feedback form –	PCYC Queensland Contact Us
Post –	PO Box 3445, Tingalpa QLD 4173

Feedback may also be obtained through participation in customer satisfaction survey or evaluation facilitated by PCYC Queensland.

If requested, PCYC Queensland will assist individuals with lodging a complaint or feedback.

As an Approved Provider, PCYC Queensland will ensure all Outside School Hours Care (OSHC) services display the name and contact details of the local PCYC Queensland employee whom complaints may be directed.

PCYC Queensland is committed to supporting and protecting the rights of complainants. No individual will be disadvantaged or at risk of reprisal in any way if they provide feedback or make a complaint about PCYC Queensland.

Regulatory Authority Reporting

PCYC Queensland will ensure complaints and/or feedback received is reported to the relevant regulatory authority, as required.

Early Childhood Education and Care Reporting *OSHC Services only*

PCYC Queensland will comply with requirements under the Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010, to report (within 24 hours of the complaint) situations relating to any Outside School Hours Care Service where it is alleged that:

- a serious incident has occurred or is occurring while a child was or is being educated and cared for by the service
- that the Law has been contravened

5.0 Anonymity

Anyone providing feedback or making a complaint is entitled to remain anonymous. In these situations, PCYC Queensland will endeavour to act on the feedback or resolve the complaint but may be limited in what action it can take in investigating and/or acting upon the matter given the particular circumstances.

6.0 Feedback

PCYC Queensland recognises that feedback provides opportunities to:

- Review services to the community

- Ensure the delivery of services is consistent with the organisation's vision and mission
- Identify and rectify areas for improvement
- Acknowledge the performance of those engaged by PCYC Queensland (employees/agents/volunteers)

PCYC Queensland may also use feedback from stakeholders in publications or newsletters. This is always done in a way that protects the identity of the individual, or if this is not possible or appropriate, with express permission.

7.0 Complaints

Complaints will be dealt with promptly and impartially with an emphasis on solving the problem.

External complaints regarding staff behaviour; including discrimination, bullying and harassment will be treated seriously by PCYC Queensland and managed promptly and confidentially, ensuring that all individuals, including the witnesses are not victimised.

At any time, an individual may withdraw a complaint, seek assistance or lodge a complaint with an external agency, as appropriate.

Where required by legislation, PCYC Queensland will notify relevant external agencies and reporting bodies of the matter as necessary.

8.0 Vexatious or false reports

Complaints will be rejected if a preliminary investigation of the facts indicates that they are found to be unsubstantiated, misconceived, frivolous or vexatious.

9.0 Responding to complaints and feedback

Feedback and complaints received by PCYC Queensland will be acknowledged within 2 business days - PCYC Queensland will comply with all response timeframes agreed to or required by funding bodies and service partners and works with these organisations to address and resolve complaints that are subject to these requirements.

Only the complaints officer and authorised management have access to complaints and feedback reports, registers and related personal information.

10.0 Managing complaints

Where possible PCYC Queensland will resolve complaints received at the first point of contact.

Complaints will be assessed and prioritised in accordance with the urgency and/or seriousness of the issues raised. Determination will be made whether it can be investigated internally, or an external agency/investigator is required.

Internally managed complaints will be addressed consistently and in a timely manner. PCYC Queensland will:

1. Register the complaint
2. Assess the complaint details
3. Initiate an Investigation
4. Monitor the investigation
5. Finalise the investigation/complaint
6. Respond to the individual
7. Record the investigation decision and appropriate case notes

11.0 External referrals

At any time including before or instead of advising PCYC, a complainant may refer their complaint to an external agency or alternative dispute resolution service.

This would include where a complainant is not satisfied with the outcome/response to their complaint.

In either instance appropriate external agency information will be provided by PCYC Queensland upon request

12.0 Confidentiality

The identity of the individual making a complaint will be protected, where this is practical and appropriate.

Information obtained through complaints and feedback management process will be managed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and Australian Privacy Principles.

13.0 Review and improvement

PCYC Queensland is committed to reviewing and improving the effectiveness and efficiency of our complaints and feedback management process. Monitoring (which may include the use of audits and complaint satisfaction surveys) will be undertaken to ensure:

- Effectiveness in responding to and resolving complaints
- Identification and correction of inefficiencies to ensure best practices in complaint handling
- Regular review the overall process and complaint and feedback data
- Implementation of appropriate changes arising from the analysis of data and continual monitoring of the process
